PROFILE

Content writer and BSc CSIT student with a proven habit of publishing — blogs, articles, research-based content, and creative writing (poetry and short stories) — across self-built websites. Comfortable owning a piece from idea to published page, including basic HTML/CSS formatting and Canva visuals. Strong command of English, Nepali, and Hindi, with a natural eye for storytelling, tone, and reader engagement.

WRITING EXPERIENCE & PROJECTS

Blog & Article Writer — Personal Blog

- Wrote and published a range of blog posts and articles on topics spanning technology trends, personal reflection, and current interests.
- Managed the full content cycle independently — topic research, drafting, editing, and formatting for readability.

Research Content Website — Independent Project

- Built and maintained a website dedicated to original research-based content, translating research into clear, reader-friendly writing.
- Practiced structuring long-form informational content with accuracy and clarity as the priority.

Poetry & Storytelling Website — Independent Project

- Designed, wrote, and published an interactive storytelling platform featuring original short stories.
- Created and showcased a personal poetry collection, developing a distinct creative voice across multiple pieces.

Portfolio Website — Personal Brand

- Developed a personal portfolio site (HTML, CSS, JavaScript) to showcase writing samples, projects, and creative work in one place.
